

band met art. 1 van het conoordaat van 1802, allerleischoort van godsdienssteeningen buiten gebouwen en besloten plaatsen toelaat in alle dorpen.

— Den 17 dezer deed de zendeling dr. R. Neumann van Berlijn, in de doopsgezinde kerk te Amsterdam, enige mededeelingen omtrent zijne ontmoetingen en ervaringen in China. Eerst sprak hij over de uitgestrektheid van het chineesch rijk, vervolgens over de moeilijkheden voor den zendeling aldaar; eindelijk verklaarde hij dat, niettegenstaande die moeilijkheden, het evangelie met vreugde werd ontvangen. De spreker vermeldde daarbij een aantal bijzonder belangrijke ontmoetingen en gewaagde breedvoerig van zijne reis naar het eiland Hainan; ook bepaalde hij zijne hoorders bij zijne betrekking tot den beroemden Gutzlaff en schetste diens sterfbed in krachtige trekken. Behalve door mr. H. J. Koenen, die deze bijeenkomst had geopend, werd nog het woord gevoerd door ds. L. J. van Rhijn, predikant te Nieuw-Loosdrecht.

Dr. Neumann ontving zijne opleiding aan het zendeling-instituut te Berlijn. Na het bezoek van dr. Gutzlaff aldaar in 1850 en de stichting van het berlijnsche zendelingsgenootschap voor China, werd hij al spoedig als evangeliebede aangenomen en naar Hongkong gezonden, met last om zich aan de zijde van Gutzlaff te plaatsen. Doordien doodtrad hij als hoofd der chineesche vereeniging op, van welke betrekking hij zich met getrouwheid kweet. Niet alleen door onderwijs, door stichting van een asyl voor kinderen, aan welks hoofd zijne echtgenoot geplaatst werd, door zijnen ijver in de bevordering van den chineesch. bijbel, maar vooral door gedurige zendingsreizen, welke hij met onderscheidene zijner leerlingen ondernam, verwierf hij zich ook de goedkeuring der nederlandsche vereeniging tot bevordering van het christendom onder de chinezen, die hem meermalen met belangrijke bijdragen ondersteunde. Door groote inspanning krank geworden, is hij ter herstelling tijdelijk naar zijn vaderland teruggekeerd.
